The Hockaday School

Cover By Susan Sewell

The Hockaday School, one of the outstanding girls' schools in the United States, was founded by Miss Ela Hockaday in 1913. Since then, the school has expanded far beyond Miss Hockaday's expectation, but the original four cornerstones of character, scholarship, athletic ability and courtesy have remained unchanged. The aim of Hockaday is to prepare young women for college and civic responsibility.

Miss Hockaday had a stimulating mind which inspired everyone with whom she came in contact, and with it a dignity and a warm, human friendliness that enhanced the beauty of her character. Thus, her legacy is a rich and continuing one which can be fully measured only in the years to come as her life's work, to which she dedicated herself unselfishly, continues to influence the lives of others.

. . . Karl Hoblitzelle

Miss Hockaday's fine qualities of mind and heart, both innate and cultivated, were manifold, but those which meant the most to me were courage, her steadfastness of purpose, and her ability to make others want to do their best. The school which bears her name has helped to prepare hundreds of girls for college, and for rich and meaningful lives, as students, and afterwards as citizens, they have brought and will continue to bring honor to the school bequeathed to them.

. . . Marguerite Grow

Miss Ela Hockaday

FOREWORD

This year at Hockaday has meant many different things to each of us. For some, this year represents the closing chapter of high school education . . . for others, the beginning of four most important years. To all, this year has represented an opportunity to achieve academic goals, to expand cultural knowledge, to form new friendships and to strengthen old, and above all, to discover our individual talents and to establish goals for the future. This year has ended, another begins . . . but for every individual, lasting memories have been created.

Yes, the year fades . . .

Time passes

But we will remember.

ROBERT SIMPSON LYLE

Completing his second year as Headmaster of The Hockaday School, Mr. Lyle has earned the respect and admiration of all. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from Dartmouth College and his M.S. in Education from Cornell University. He taught Latin and English at Saint George's School in Newport, Rhode Island, and then became head of the Latin Department at Peddie School in Hightstown, New Jersey. After service in the Navy, Mr. Lyle became Headmaster at Sidwell Friends School in Washington, D. C. His association with Hockaday began in the fall of 1961. His experience in education has led him to the opinion that, "In each student there must be the continuing desire and the quest for knowledge. Through the development of character, scholastic discipline, physical fitness and cultural attainment, a Hockaday girl should achieve that personal happiness that comes from an effective participation in and contribution to her society."

PHILIP P. PERKINS

This has been our first year to have an Assistant Headmaster at Hockaday. Mr. Perkins received an enthusiastic welcome and has been an asset to Hockaday from the beginning. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Education from West Chester State College in Pennsylvania and his Master of Arts degree in English from the Bread Loaf School at Middlebury College in Vermont. After serving as a pilot in the Second World War, he became a teacher at Saint Albans School in Washington, D. C. He later accepted chairmanship of the English Department at Grosse Pointe University School, in Michigan, and from there became principal of the Upper School and teacher of English at Sidwell Friends School of Washington, D. C. Mr. Perkins came to Hockaday in the fall of 1962 as Assistant Headmaster and Head of the Upper School.

Senior

Play

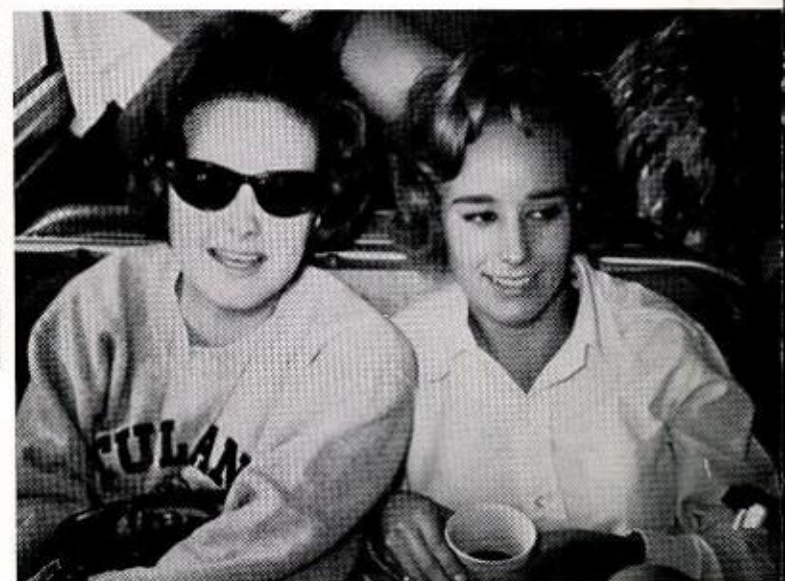

The Seniors presented the traditional class play on November the sixteenth and seventeenth this year. Carolie Verco, Mr. Robert Merritt, Jr., and Sondra Grady portrayed the leading characters in "Pride and Prejudice," the story of an anxious mother trying to find suitable husbands for her daughters.

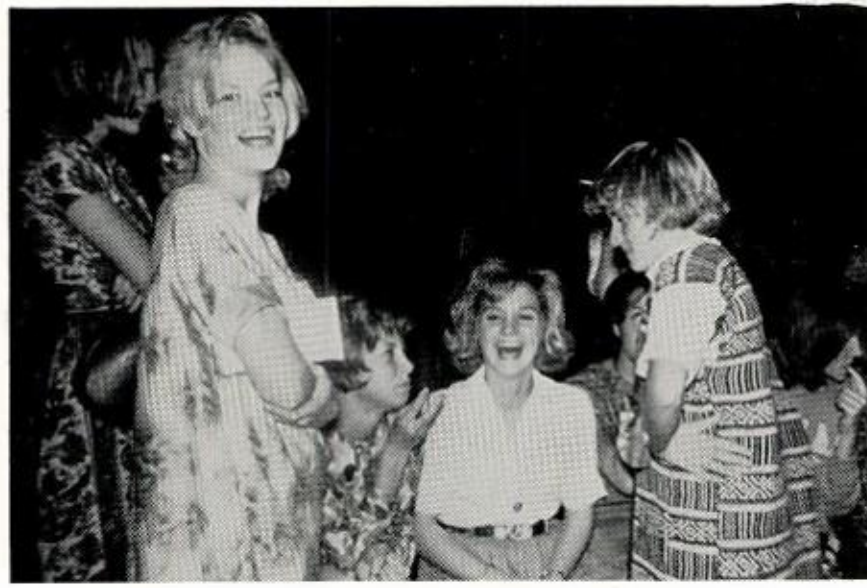

Senior

Trip

Again this year the Seniors boarded the buses and headed for their weekend resort—destination unknown. Upon reaching Seybold's Ranch, the girls hurried to ride down the river, play ping pong or a hand of bridge, or ride horseback.

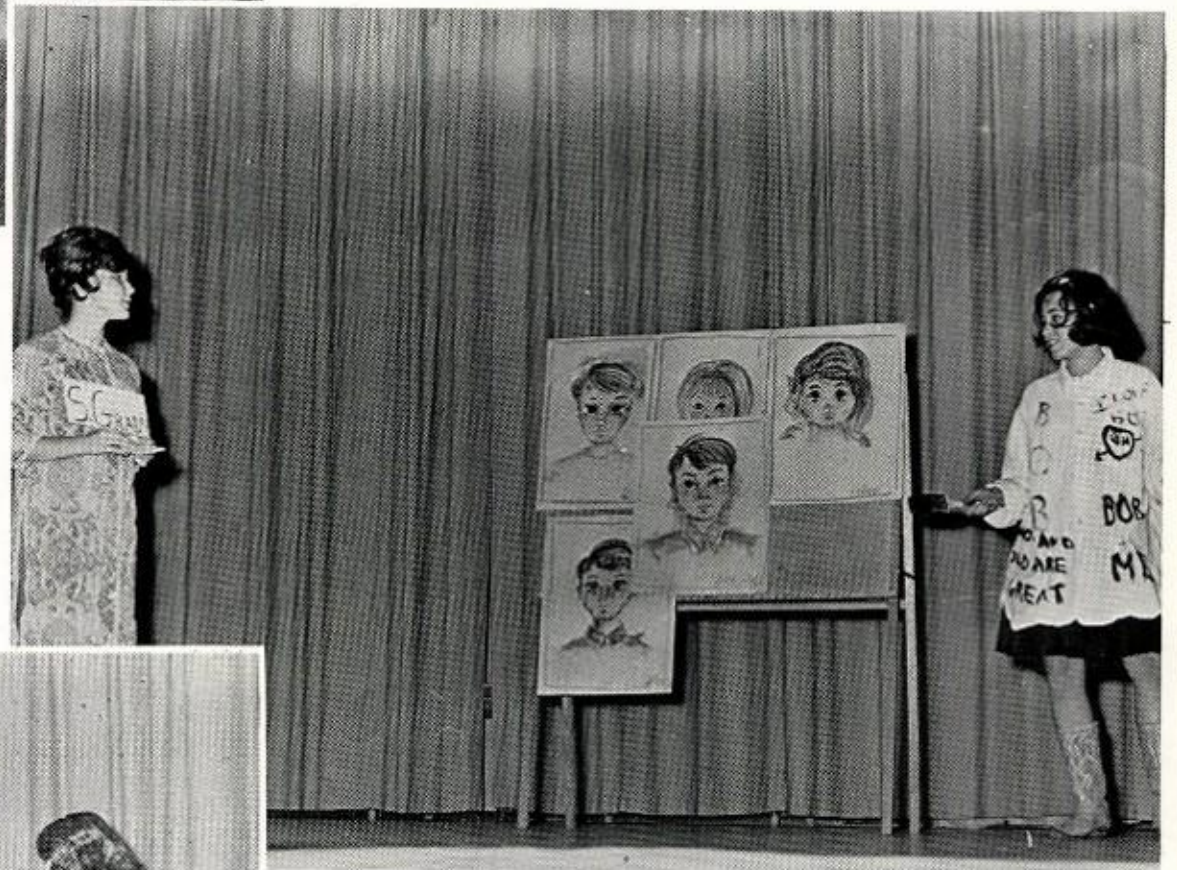

One would think that after the delicious outdoor barbecue that evening, the Seniors would not have spent the night searching for food. The trip was exciting—ask the Lyles or the Perkins.

Senior Take-Offs

From September until Thanksgiving every year, the Seniors await impatiently to view the Junior's impressions of them. The day arrives and the Seniors are dethroned as the skit known as "Senior Take-Offs" is performed.

The Senior Class Officers, as seated from l. to r., Carol Verco, treasurer; Carol Williams, president; Diane Gast, vice-president; Miss Barbara Newcombe, sponsor; Diana Davidson, secretary.

This year the Third Form undertook six projects which have consistently kept them busy. First, as their Community Service project each Saturday four girls did volunteer work at the Texas Children's Hospital. They also gave Lower School chapel every Wednesday and kept the corridors quiet between and during classes. In order to increase their budget they sold candy to the Upper School students twice a day. In January they held an informal "Ski Lodge" dance in Tarry House. In the Spring they honored the faculty and seniors with a tea. The highlight of the year was the annual Senior Take-Offs which they wrote, produced, and directed.

The Second Form as one of the largest classes in the history of Hockaday has some of the most important responsibilities. As School Service projects they have collected attendance slips at the beginning and end of school, helped to keep the lower floor corridors quiet and orderly, regularly polished the school trophies, and supplied magazines for the infirmary. The Second Form chose to help the under-privileged children of Dallas as their Community Service project. They made money by keeping the Lost and Found and holding several auctions. In February they gave a tea for the faculty. This has been a profitable year for the Second Form and they are looking forward to entering their junior year with the sense of responsibility which they have gained from this year's experiences.

The First Form is credited with six projects this year. Their major accomplishment was the sale of Hockaday calendars. The profits from this sale financed their "Mexican" dance in February as well as a party for Dallas orphans in the Spring. In addition, they assisted in the library and were responsible for any P.E. equipment used during the day. Their final project was a tea for the Third Form before commencement.

STAFF MEMBERS

Staff members in Publications Office. Sponsors, Miss Johnson and Mr. Hockaday not pictured.

This year the members of the "Fourcast" were proud to present Hockaday a newspaper with a new appearance. The use of the traditional name was featured. The division of duties among the whole staff meant that the Fourcast was the result of the efforts of many girls and was truly representative of their combined talents. The sharing of responsibilities among many girls should help to train some of the underclassmen to be future editors and journalists for the Fourcast. This team approach resulted in a broader coverage of news and a fine "esprit de corps." In addition there was a reactivation of the staff as a vital school organization with meetings that were instructive and stimulating. All of the staff are indebted to the sponsors and lecturers who helped to guide the staff past its problems and toward any successes the paper may have enjoyed.

Recreation Committee

The Recreation Committee has a two-fold purpose: to bring about a closer relationship between the day students and resident students, and to offer a wide program of leisure-time activities for the boarding students. The year's activities range from ballet to horseback riding.

Sponsor, Mrs. Batterson, and Harriet Higginbotham discuss coming events.

Community

Two girls from each class are chosen to be models in the style show.

The Community Service Committee coordinates the efforts of the students on behalf of various charitable organizations. As a fund-raising project, the Committee presents an annual style show sponsored by Neiman-Marcus. Weekly production parties are held, during which workers

The School Service Committee is a sub-committee of the Student Council. It's chairman is elected by the student body, and its members are appointed by the chairman. This year the Committee sponsored such projects as schedules for the yearbook's pictures, a general clean-up campaign, lunch-room seating, arranging Dad's Day, and the all-school picnic. The members of the School Service owe much gratitude to their sponsor, Miss Griffiths.

On their clean-up campaign, members check study-hall desks.

Weber, S. Penson, J. Little, H. Higginbotham, D. Barnes, D. Paine, O. Laney, D. Haas, D. Collins, M. Martin, M. Caldwell, S. Mills.

Welcoming Committee

Each year the members of the Welcoming Committee greet newcomers to Hockaday. During the summer the members write to the new students and try to answer any questions they might have about Hockaday. In the fall, as the new students arrive, they are shown to their rooms and introduced to the campus by the Welcoming Committee. The members are made up of the Student Council and students picked at large.

This year the art club is solely designed to give the girls at Hockaday a deeper understanding of art; and in particular today's art. We feel this understanding is necessary for the full development of any girl's cultural background and education. We also want to give our members an opportunity to dabble and experience mediums of painting, drawing, or sculpture. The club hopes to serve as an instigator to arouse interest, talent, and support in the realm of today's art.

Tu Tertulia

PRESIDENT _____ Pattye Nichols
 VICE-PRESIDENT _____ Nan Brown
 SECRETARY _____ Mary Franks
 TREASURER _____ Linda Deal

Tu Tertulia, the Spanish Honor Society, was organized in order to recognize excellence among the students of the Spanish department. The purpose of Tu Tertulia is to acquaint its members with the customs and culture of Spanish speaking countries and to improve its members' fluency in speaking Spanish through practice.

OFFICERS—L. Deal, P. Nichols, N. Brown, M. Franks. SPONSORS—Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Oram.

Dux Femina Facti

OFFICERS and SPONSORS: Back row: M. Ehricht, C. Gerhauser, B. Walker, A. Bateson, P. Phillips, Miss Grow, Mrs. Ehricht, Miss Kimball. Front row: N. Works, Brown, Higginbotham, Kadane, Meadors.

The Dux Femina Facti, established in 1939, is Hockaday's Latin Honor Society. The purpose of this society is to further the member's knowledge of the traditions, ideals, and principles of Roman life. The name itself, Dux Femina Facti, is a quotation from Virgil's "Aeneid" meaning "the leader of the undertaking was a woman." The Dux is headed by a cursus honorum consisting of its eleven officers, by its sponsors, and by Minerva, the Goddess of Wisdom. Membership in the Dux is open to all Latin students maintaining honor grades. The highlight of the Dux activities is the traditional Roman Banquet, held in May in honor of Minerva, the Goddess of Wisdom.

Entre Nous

PRESIDENT Pam McCrary
 SECRETARY M. J. Ehricht
 TREASURER Susie Moody

Entre Nous, The French Honor Society, is open to any girl who has completed a semester's work in French with honor grades. The purpose of this club is to stimulate further interest in anything pertaining to France and the French people. Once a year an initiation dinner is held at the Old Warsaw Restaurant.

OFFICERS and SPONSORS: M. J. Ehricht, Pam McCrary, S. Moody; Mrs. Daniels and Miss Coulanges.

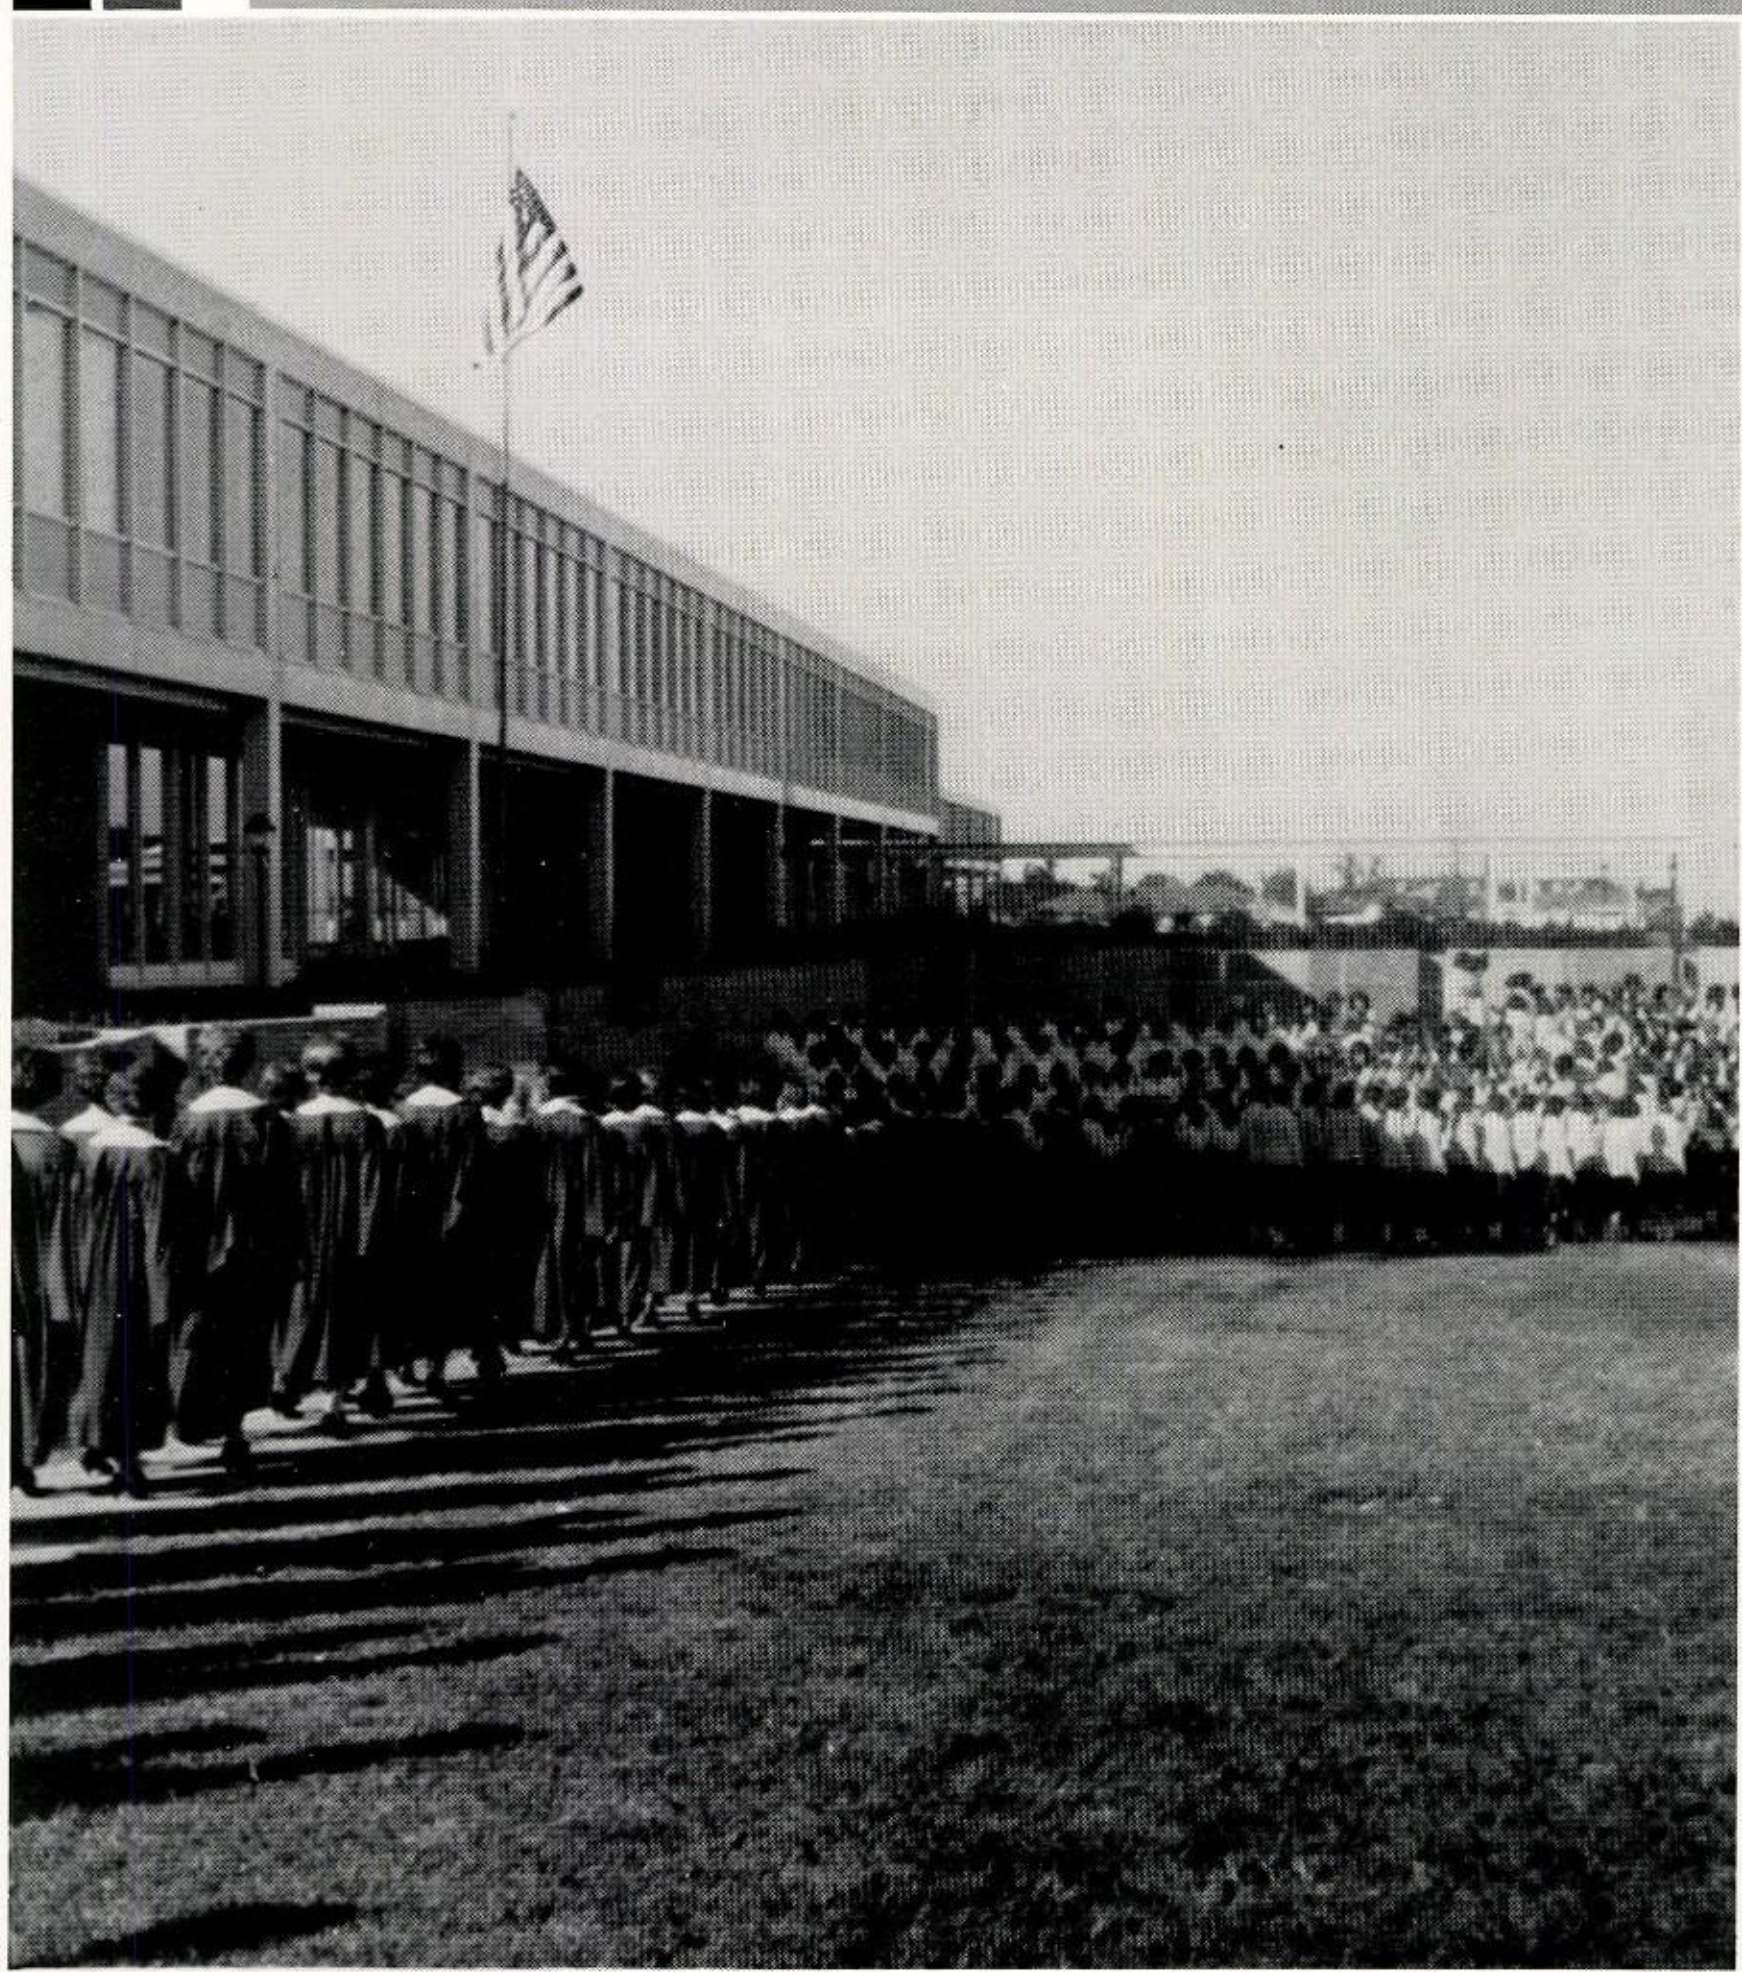

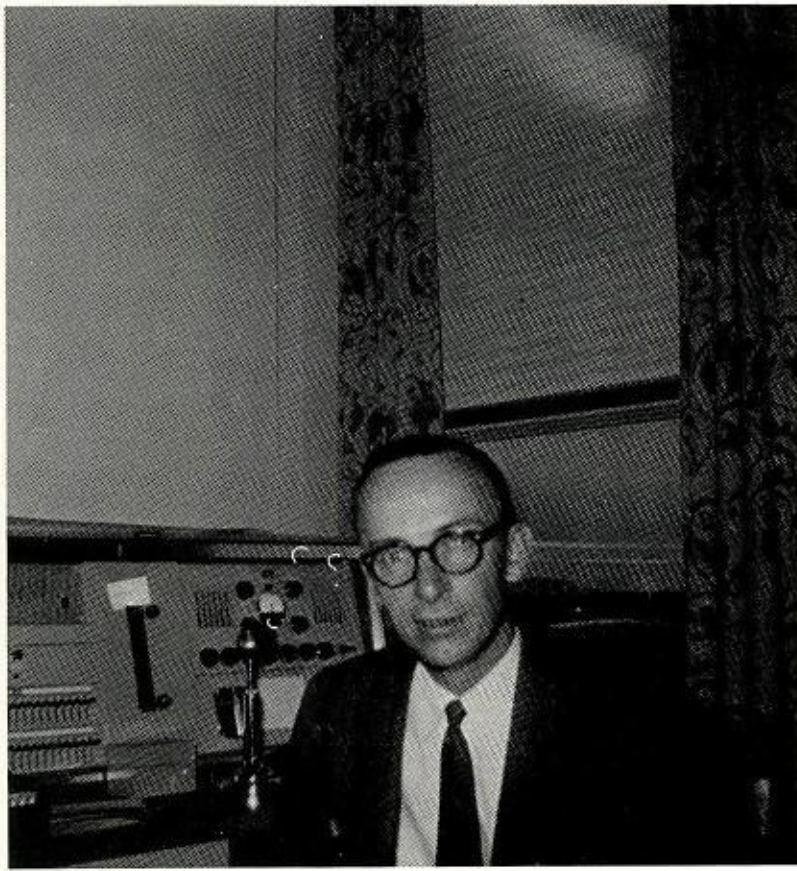

Seated: C. Silverberg, G. Higginbotham, M. Jackson, D. Paine, N. Meadors, C. Convers. Standing: K. Flaxman, D. Barnes, S. Yancey, M. Shelton, S. Pitman.

School of Wreathmakers

The School of Wreathmakers is an organization formed for the purpose of aiding in the success of the Roman Banquet, which is put on by the Latin Department at the end of the year. During the year this school teaches anyone in the Latin Department who is interested, how to make the ivy wreaths used in the banquet. On the day of the Banquet, the school is in charge of making all the wreaths used in crowning the guests.

Activities

With the month of September, school days arrived once more. Accompanied by the hustle and bustle of receiving new books, meeting new girls, and welcoming our new exchange student—Carolie Verco from Australia and our new Assistant Headmaster—Mr. Philip Perkins.

All new girls were initiated to the green or white team in the first Athletic Assembly.

One Saturday, form coke parties were held especially for getting to know new day and boarding students.

Hockaday was honored with the presence of Reverend Sherwood McKee as a guest chapel speaker.

After the announcements at lunch one day the first school newspaper of the year was distributed.

Near the end of the month Hockaday defeated Our Lady of Good Counsel in a varsity volleyball game.

September came to a close with the Nineteen-sixty three seniors' trip to Mineral Wells, Texas.

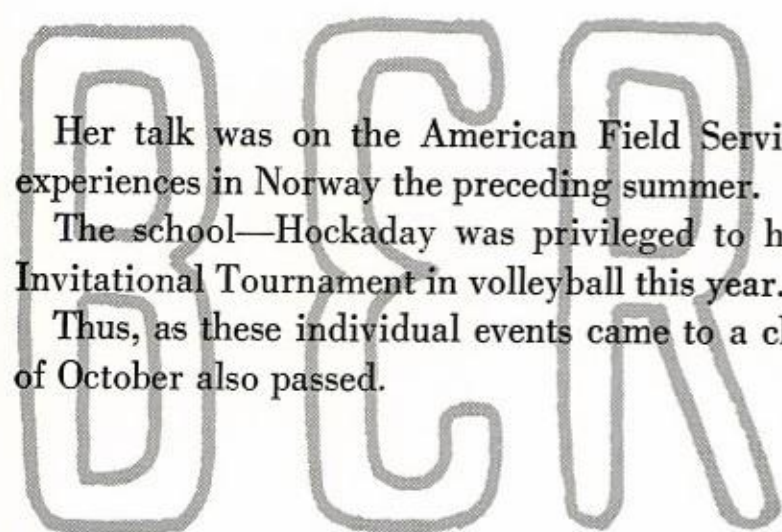

As the busy month of September swept by, Hockaday came upon an interesting and busy month—October.

Hockaday was privileged to have Donald Johanos, Director of the Dallas Symphony Orchestra, as the first guest speaker. The following day the students and faculty enjoyed the intramural swim meet.

Our own summer exchange student—Carol Williams—gave a talk to the student body and guests of the school.

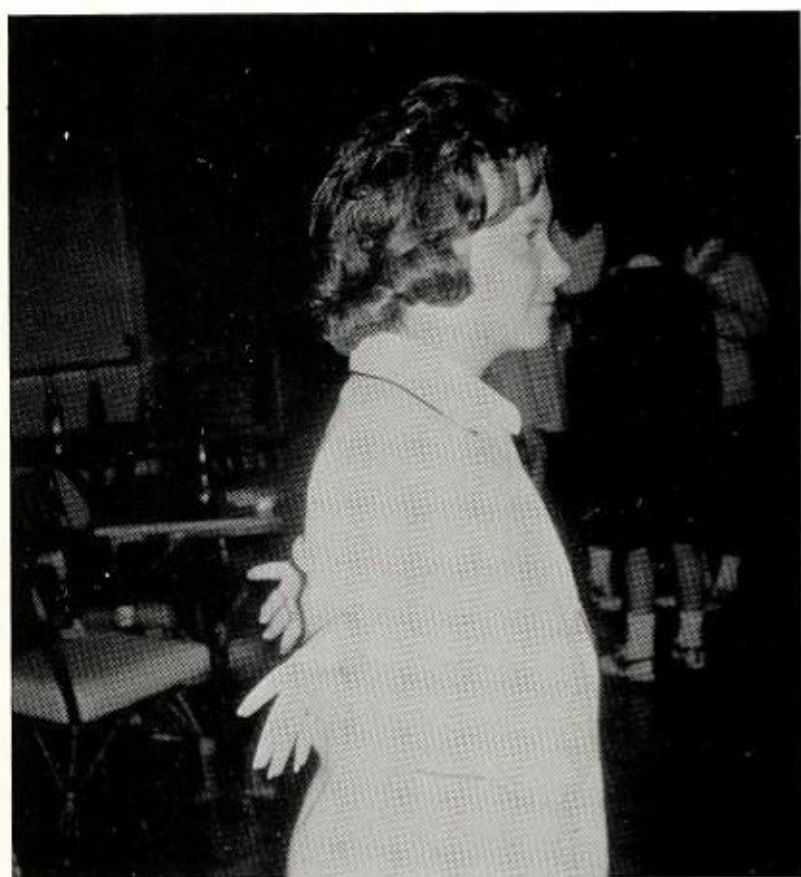

Her talk was on the American Field Service and of her experiences in Norway the preceding summer.

The school—Hockaday was privileged to hold the Dallas Invitational Tournament in volleyball this year.

Thus, as these individual events came to a close the month of October also passed.

November finally arrived and the activities began with the Poet Laureate of Texas—Marvin Whinsett.

Freshman—Senior Day followed with much laughter and pranks;

However the Cicero Oration was quite different. Both the faculty and the students were quite pleased with the results of this production.

Boarders this year have found that there is an aid at the end of each hall—a kitchenette.

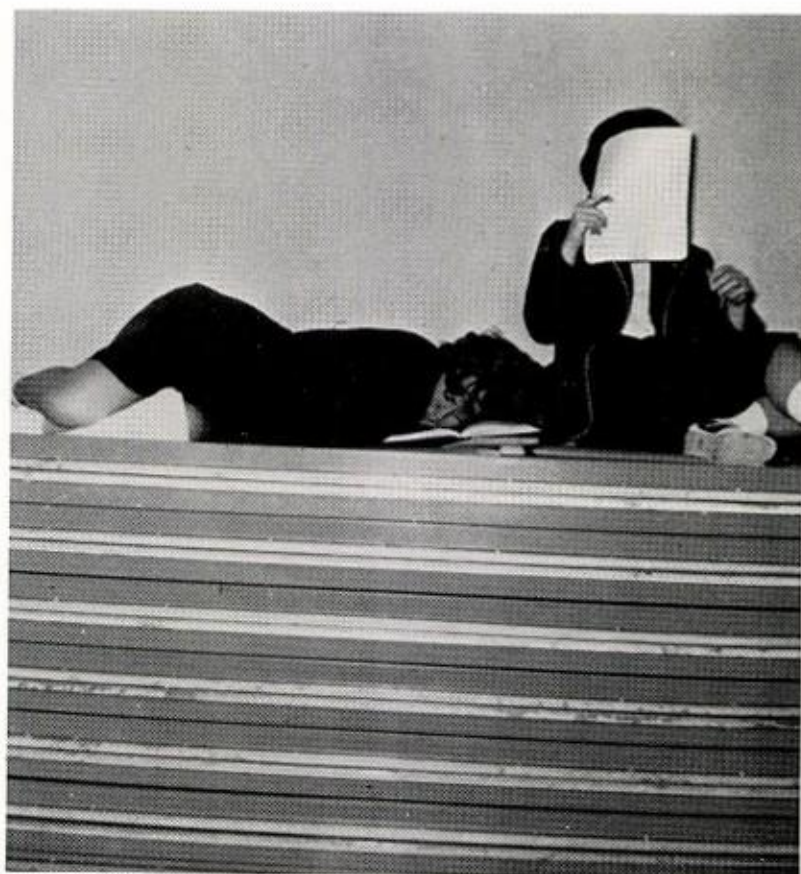

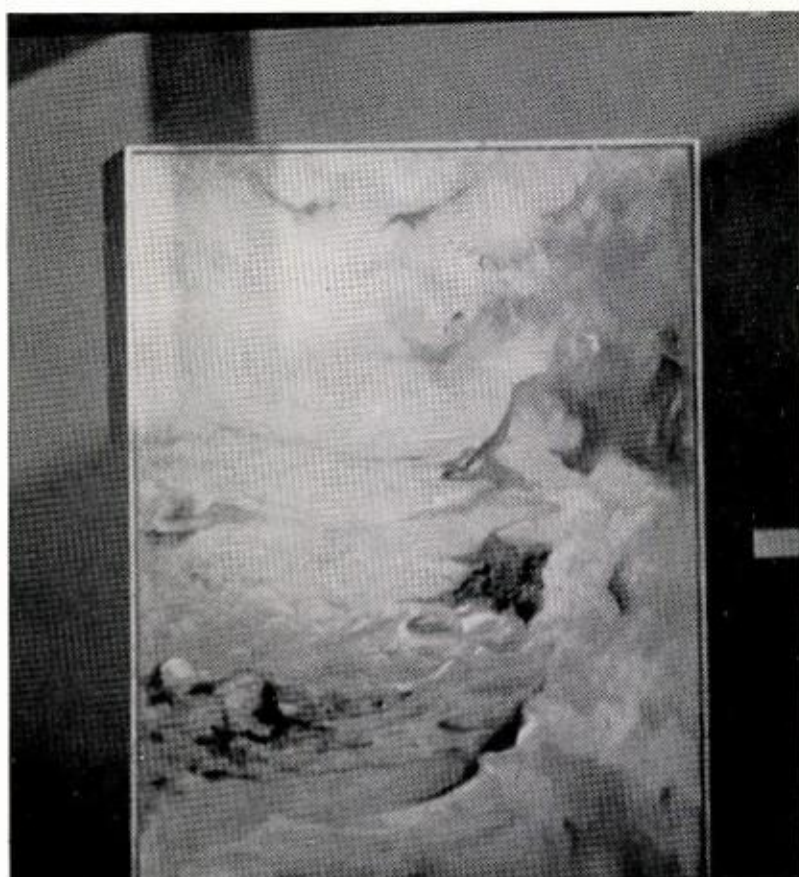

The Third Form were privileged to have Dr. Norman at a Health Education Lecture.

Hockaday was pleased to have the Senior Class present a play to the student body and guests of the school. The play was Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice adapted for the stage.

One day the annual photographers caught Vicky Gullion and Cathey Silverberg 'hamming it.' "O' Romeo, O' Romeo," spoke Vicky in a joking way.

The month ended with the form basketball games.

At last, the month of December arrived with the opening of an art show entitled—Paintings '61-'62 by Ruth Dunken Harrison—art teacher.

As dorm life continued upstairs, the Second Form Dance was quite a success in Tarry House.

Our basketball team was finally victorious in the game against the girls of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

The Christmas Birthday Dinner also took place and the Fourth Form Tea soon followed.

The traditional Junior-Senior Assembly and Saturnalian Play arrived once more.

The month of December closed with annual celebrations of the boarders' Christmas Parties and the Glee Club Christmas Production.

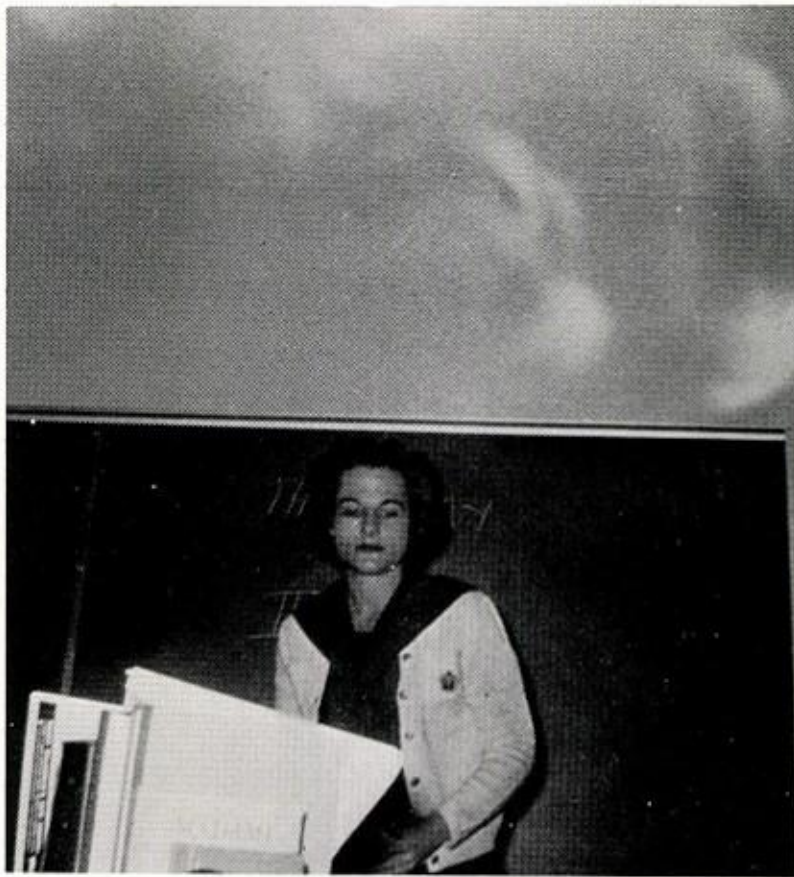

As the new year arrived, the students soon returned to school. The Heads of Residence helped plan the new rules for the boarders while the Wreathmakers Society planned for the rules allowing new candidates to enter.

The school was honored to hear Father Weber, the on campus Catholic Priest of S.M.U., as a guest chapel speaker.

The annual's editor—Carol Friedman—planned for the January deadline while the art students attempted self portraits.

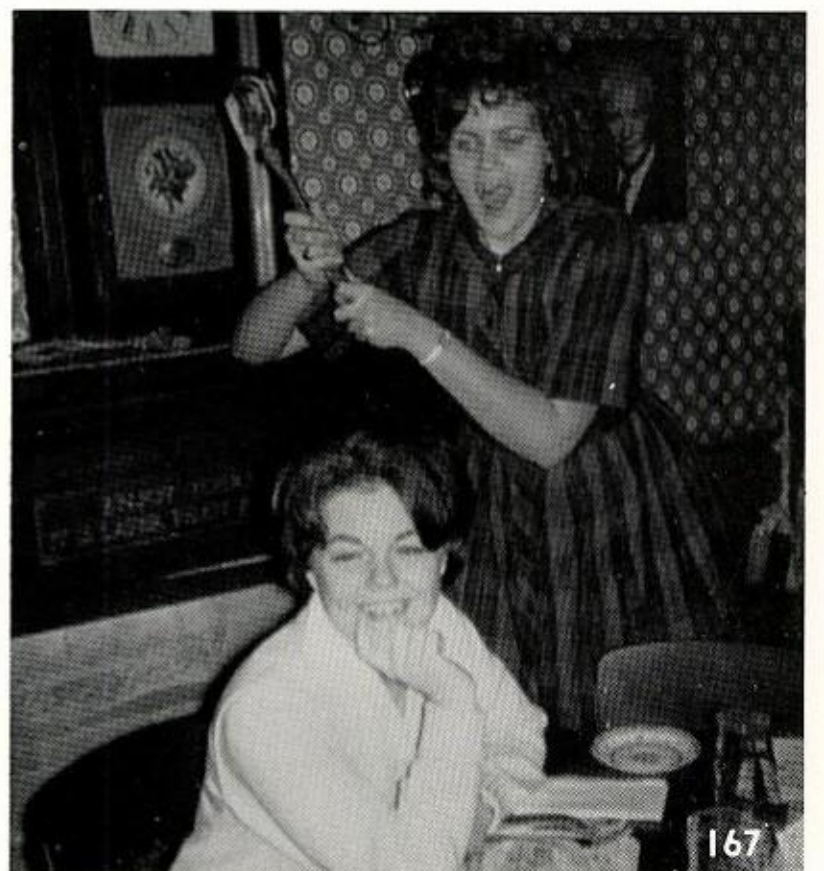

In the meantime the individual students were attending their regular classes such as Mrs. Tidey's English classes.

Of course Miss Funk was pleasing the boarders daily by bringing them their mail.

The students were also pleased to have such events as the Intramural Hockey Games as well as the victorious Varsity Hockey Trip to Austin to play Saint Stephen's School.

Before Mid-Term Exams, the Third Form closed the month's activities with a dance.

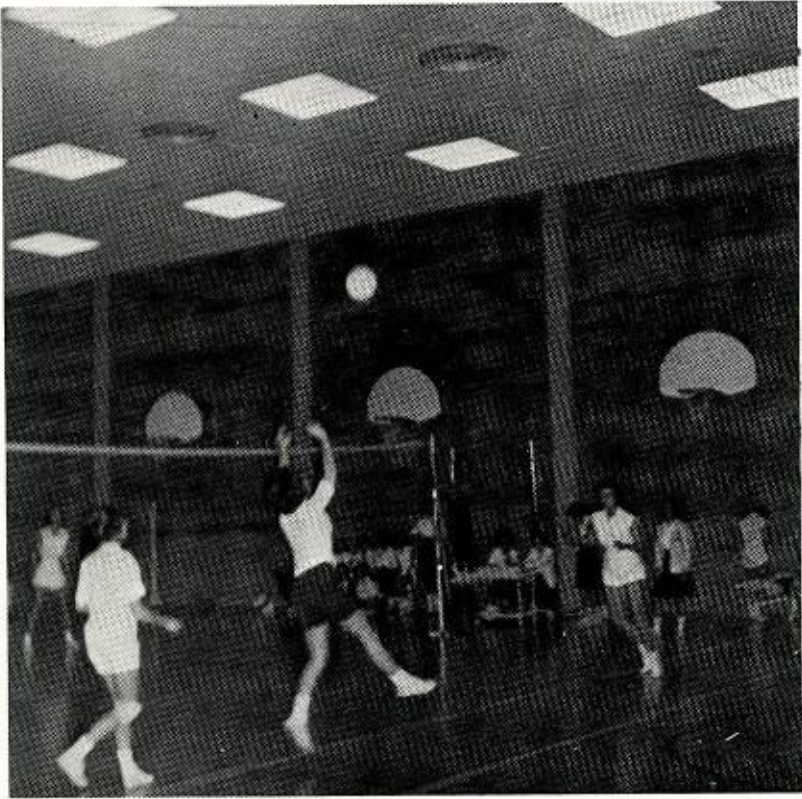

February was an exciting Hockaday month. The First Form Dance, the Picture Contest, "Fantasia," an Upper School Talent Show, and The Operetta were examples of the untiring efforts of Hockaday students. Our A.F.S. representative, Carol Williams, and Exchange student, Carolie Verco, spoke to the St. Mark's Mothers' Club. The visit by André Previn highlighted the month and February was closed by awarding Courtesy Caps to outstanding students in the Upper School.

After a tiring two weeks of attempting to select a team from 90 girls, 25 were chosen as a result of demonstrating their individual skills. Daily practice after school for an hour and a half definitely built up the endurance of each girl. Though exhausting, they enjoyed every minute, particularly having Mrs. B as coach (even if they did have to serve 20 good serves if they missed 1.) Besides winning the majority of their games, they placed 1st in the Dallas Invitational Volleyball Tournament, with Suzanne Raborn, Meri Jean Shelton, and Candy Good being chosen for the all-tournament team, each receiving a trophy. We can truly say that the team fought hard and deserved a well-earned success.

Competition is not only in Varsity, and in Green and White, but between Forms. Enthusiasm covered the school when the 1st form defeated the 3rd, and the 4th defeated the 2nd. In the playoff, the 4th form was victorious over the 1st, resulting in a tie between the 4th and 1st forms for the prized Athletic Cup.

Varsity Tennis

Tennis enthusiasm has filled the air at Hockaday and this year, twenty-five girls tried out for Varsity. Seventeen girls were selected and the team has participated in many inter-school matches. The team began competition by defeating Casady in February. Anne Jordan won singles, and Pam Hyden and Suki Penson defeated the Casady doubles team. This year Hockaday has shown a sincere interest in tennis and the team has gained much satisfaction and thorough enjoyment from the sport.

Students congratulate the newly-capped girls.

Courtesy Caps are presented each year to those Upper School girls who have displayed genuine courtesy. The cap is awarded by student nomination with the agreement of the faculty and Student Council. The green and white felt caps are worn as a part of the uniform each Friday.

Founder's Day

On March 18, the Founder's Day Award was presented to: l. to r.: Nancy Meadors, Carol Friedman, Carol Williams, Candy Good, Kathi Flaxman, Dorothy Paine, Meri Jean Shelton, and Becky Oakley.

The purpose of the Founder's Day Award is to honor those students who have shown outstanding citizenship through their service and loyalty to the school, and who, in the opinion of the faculty, the Student Council, and chairmen of student organizations, best represent that for which Miss Ela Hockaday founded this institution: the development of courtesy, scholarship, athletics and character.

In presenting the Founder's Day Awards, the electing group seeks to acknowledge the contribution of these individuals to the school and to designate them as individuals whose example others should strive to emulate.

Mr. Robert Lyle, Headmaster, Mrs. Mary Lynn Aldredge McEntire, Alumnae Board President, and Miss Candy Good, Student Council President, open the Founder's Day ceremony.

I would like to dedicate this page to all those who have worked toward the success of this yearbook. Without my excellent staff, capable advisor, Mrs. M. E. Kenning, and the cooperation of faculty and students, this book could never have become a reality. I could never sufficiently thank Mr. Kurt Borris, who has done all the professional photography and has given up many professional sittings to cover Hockaday activities. He has been more than willing to help in every way and his patience and understanding have been invaluable.

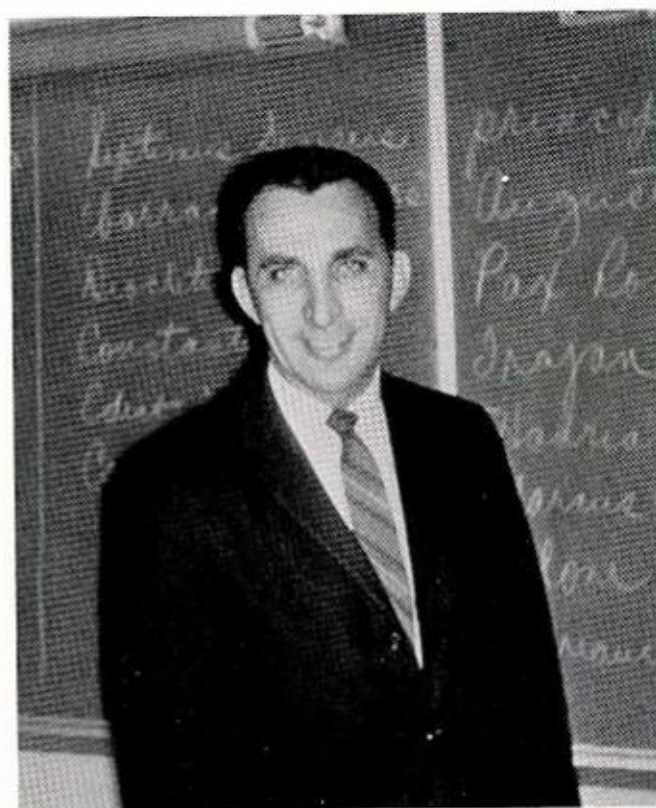

I would also like to thank Mr. Robert Lynch, our Taylor Publishing Company representative, whose guidance and suggestions have been most appreciated.

And lastly, I would like to thank you, the Hockaday student body, for allowing me to serve as your Yearbook Editor. I have gained deep satisfaction from producing a book that will always remind you of this Hockaday year. This has been your year—this is your annual. We hope you like it.

Sincerely,

Carol
